

1936

The Board of Trustees of the Athens Public Library met in the Library Wednesday, March 25th, 1936.

Those present were Mr. John White Morton, Mr. B.M. Grier, Mrs. J.M. Reade, Mrs. Lamar Rucker and Mrs. John J. Wilkins, Jr. Mr. M. G. Michael was absent due to an unexpected business trip to New York.

Mr. B. M. Grier was elected President, Mr. John White Morton, Treasurer, and Mrs. John J. Wilkins, Jr Secretary.

Mrs. Rucker was appointed chairman of a committee to look into the matter of securing the Iris Stamp of the Tallulah Falls Circle for a book stamp.

Discussion of plans for opening the Library on Tuesday, April 7th, was held and it was decided to have at least two women from different clubs stay for an hour at a time through out the day.

Mr. Grier suggested we make a particular effort to make this a fiction and reading library instead of a reference library, as the University and Schools have sufficient reference books.

The meeting was adjourned after inspection of the premises.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. John J. Wilkins, Jr.
Secretary

April 3, 1936

The Board of Trustees of the Athens Public Library met in the Library at 10:00 A. M. Thursday, May 21, 1936. Those present were Mesdames J. M. Reade and Wilkins and Messrs Morton and Grier. Mr. Michael was detained by a business visitor from New York. Mrs. Lamar Rucker has handed in her resignation due to too many other activities. Her successor will be appointed by City Council.

The Secretary was authorized to look into the purchase of chairs for the Children's Story Hour, as the ones being used at the present are borrowed from Emmanuel Episcopal Church Sunday School and returned each morning after they are used.

The Secretary reported donations amounting to approximately $106.00, including $50.00 from the Athens Woman's Club raised by their Library and Education Tag Day, May 7th.

The Secretary was authorized to order the Wilson Library Bulletin for three years and also the American Library Association Booklist.

The loan card requesting loan of one hundred books from the Georgia Library Commission was signed by the trustees present, and also the Agreement between the Bank and Library regarding occupancy of the premises was signed by Mr. B. M. Grier as president, and Mrs. Wilkins, secretary. The original was mailed to Mr. Ovid Bird at the National Bank.

The problem of student help was discussed, as National Youth Administration support ceases June 8th, and the WPA is slated to stop June 30th. However, we are assured government support will be forthcoming throughout the year for an assistant librarian. It was decided to save the $50.00 from the Athens Woman's Club to defray possible salaries during the summer, as Mrs. McWhorter works only from 9:00 A.M. to 2:00 PM

The Secretary reported 352 people registered, of whom 164 are children; that Mrs. Claude Chance is handling publicity and Mrs. E. E. Lamkin is keeping a scrapbook on the progress and publicity; that the Book Selection Committee is composed of Mrs. W. F. Bradshaw, fiction; Mrs. C. J. Decker, fine arts; Miss Charlotte Newton, non-fiction; Mrs. Claude Chance, children's books; and also, that McGregor's Book Store is giving us splendid discount on supplies and books.

A report was made on the increase in the Children's Story Hour attendance from four to fifteen. This hour is conducted from nine to ten on Saturdays by Mrs. Joseph Magill and will be carried on by Mrs. Hubert Rylee when Mrs. Magill leaves.

It was reported that subscriptions have been received from the Athens Banner Herald and the Daily Times and the Atlantan Georgia; Better Homes and Gardens and Popular Mechanix.

The P. T. A. is putting in a shelf on Child Welfare and Child Work.

WPA has given us two assistants for Mrs. McWhorter, Mr. Joe Gerson and Mr. Edwin Shelton and also Mr. Franklin Scheider one day a week from the University Library.

It was decided to apportion $67.00 to the Book Selection Committee for purchase of books.

Upon motion of Mrs. Reade the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. John J. Wilkins Jr.
Secretary
